

Dominick M. Nors is St. Paul's Director of Music Ministry. As native Texan, Dominick earned his Bachelor of Science Degree with a concentration in Music from Texas A&M University at Commerce. While he was attending TAMU-C, he was a member of Chorale, Chamber Singers, assistant conductor for three main-stage operas, Der Schauspieldirektor, Il Campinello di Notte, and the NATS performed opera Xerxes, and was an active member of the Beta Mu chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon. He then attended Baylor University where he began his graduate degree in Church Music and Conducting. While at Baylor he studied with Dr. Randall Bradley and was a member of the Baylor Chamber Singers. Then, he attended Texas A&M University-Commerce to restart his graduate degree in Choral Conducting, studying under Dr. Randall Hooper. Outside of college, Dominick has been a Colorguard Director for several Dallas-Fort Worth Area High Schools, the Choir Director for Commerce Middle School, a member of the Dallas Symphony Chorus, and the founding music director of the Dallas-based choir, Inspirata. Dominick has also served in positions as Director of Music Ministry at Cedar Creek Lake UMC, and Director of Music at United Presbyterian Church, both in Texas. In his free time, he enjoys reading, studying orchestral/opera scores, and spending time with his husband, Nathan, or their 4 fur children: Daisy, Cody, Bellatrix, and Samson.
