

Donnie is a Certified Local Pastor whose call to ministry began at the end of a twenty-seven year career as a high school math teacher. A native of Virginia, Donnie earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Virginia. It is there where he met his wife Daphne. They have been married thirty-four years and have two daughters, Kim and Christine. Five years after getting married, Donnie attended Radford University to become a Certified Math Teacher while Daphne went to Officer Training School, becoming a 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Air Force. Donnie assists Senior Pastor Patti Agnew with preaching, pastoral care and teaching an adult Sunday school class. He also oversees the nursery, children's Sunday school classes and Vacation Bible School. Donnie has a passion for ministry and a love for Jesus Christ.
